

HAUNTED HOMES

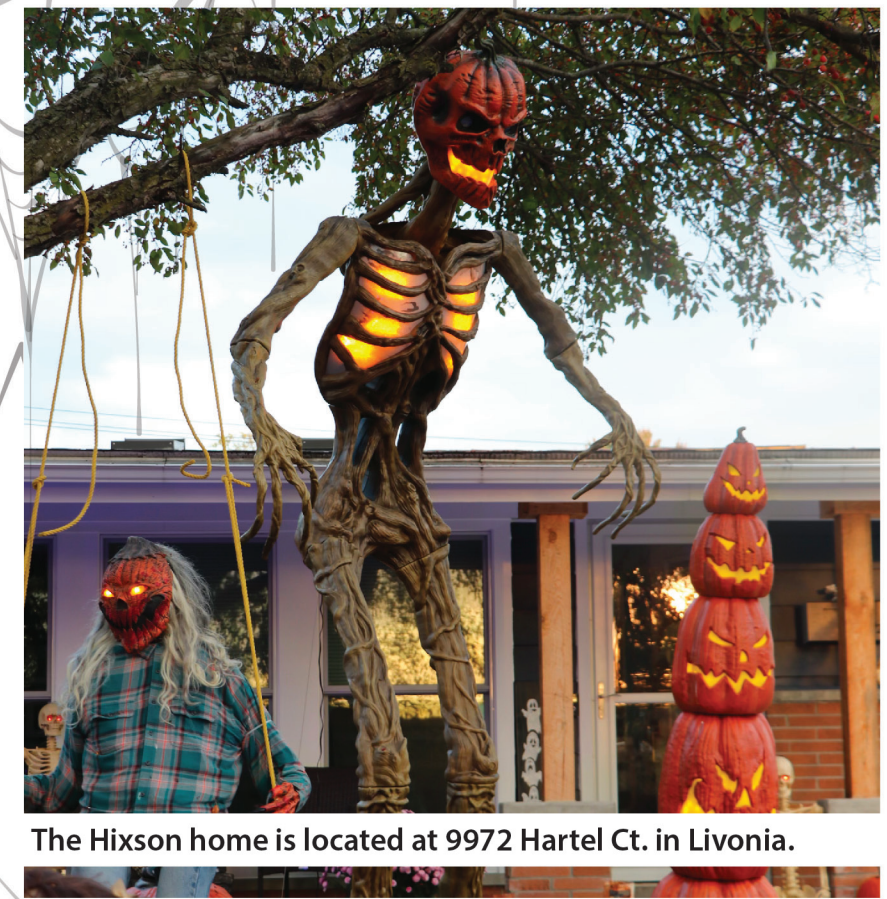

Get ready for a spooky adventure as The Schoolcraft Connection hunted down the best Halloween yards in town! The team kicked off their mission by hitting up All Things Livonia, the popular Facebook page.

Photo Editor, Izabella Allie launched the 2023 "Haunted Homes" Contest. Her call to action was simple: the Connection wanted to highlight four homes that are Halloween havens! The post was a hit, and soon there twenty nominations.

After some tough deliberation, four winners were selected. The winners were Danielle Hixson, Patricia Chambers, Jim Rogers, and Jody Gordon.

The Chamber's home is located at 8510 Alper in Westland.

The Hixson home is located at 9972 Hartel Ct. in Livonia.

Welcome to the Hartel Court Horror. Danielle Hixson's house is a hit for all visitors. The residence is even complete with its personalized sign. The Hixson family's favorite part about Halloween is passing out treats to both parents and children. The house is a neighborhood favorite and enjoyed by all.

The Rogers home is located at 16747 N. Stanmoor Dr. in Livonia.

Father/daughter duo, Jim and Blakely Rogers created the Rogers yard. Horror movies heavily inspired them. According to Jim Rogers his favorite part of Halloween is dressing up with his daughter and decorating with her.

Photos courtesy of Jim Rogers

The Gordon's home is located at 35132 Scone in Livonia.

Nine year old Sawyer Gordon, shown above with her parents Jody and Kyle, is the brains behind the operation of the Gordon home according to her mother. She designed her whole yard. Sawyer's favorite part about Halloween is decorating with her family as well as dressing up.

Patricia Chamber's Halloween house is an animatronic heaven. Her yard features favorites like Sam from the ever-so-popular, "Trick 'r Treat". According to Chambers the Chambers' residence each year try to do four different themes in their yard.

Photos and Layout by Izabella Allie